No More Red Lines crossed in Gaza: EU Foreign Affairs Ministers Must Move from Words to Action

When: Monday, 27 May, between 08:00 – 09:00 CEST.

Where: On the pavement between the Berlaymont and Council building.

Please confirm your attendance by emailing eumedia@oxfam.org or responding to this mail.

What: Activists will stand outside the EU foreign affairs meeting, demanding: "How many more red lines will be crossed in Gaza before the EU acts?"

A red ribbon will be placed in front of the EU buildings to represent the 'red lines' already crossed – like the attack in Rafah, reports of looming famine, attacks on civilians and humanitarians, and attacks on schools and hospitals.

Photos and B-roll
For photos and videos, please reach out to eumedia@oxfam.org to be put on mailing list.

Interviews

Agnès Bertrand-Sanz, Oxfam Belgium Middle East and North Africa humanitarian programs and advocacy advisor.

Willy Bergogné, EU Director, Save the Children.

Contacts

Julia Manresa at Julia.Manresa@oxfam.org | Work at +32 473 87 44 26 | WhatsApp only +32 479 56 18 12

Jade Tenwick at jade.tenwick@oxfam.org | Work at +32 473 56 22 60 | WhatsApp only +32 484 81 22 94