

Oxfam Kenya Board of Directors

Wanjikú Wairia, Board Chair

With over 20 years of Eurasia | Pan-African experience, Wanjikú is an accomplished Enterprise Strategist, a DEI Practitioner, an ESG Advocate, and a seasoned Executive Coach with a proven cross-industry track record of driving and multiplying sustainable scalable organizational value. Her corporate advisory services span corporate and philanthropic sectors. Wanjikú is a passionate social impact synergist focused on steering the power of agency for all.

Dr Kellen Kiambati, Treasurer

Prof. Kellen Kiambati is a distinguished scholar and expert in the field of Strategic Management. She holds a PhD in Business Administration, a Master's degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor's degree in Human Resource Management. Professor Kiambati has an impressive track record of both foreign and local expert assignments, showcasing her expertise and contributions on a global scale. Her diverse training includes governance, conflict prevention, and mediation.

Dr Reson Marima

With over 15 years of experience, she has played a pivotal role in leading public health programs across Kenya and Botswana, particularly in the realm of HIV and related programming. Her expertise spans program design, implementation, and management at the community, facility, and national health system levels. She is recognized as a transformational leader and holds a board position at the Kenya Pediatric Association.

Laura Chite

Laura Chite is passionate about technology and its role in transforming & impacting the future of the youth, women, and Persons with Disabilities, as we head into the 4th Industrial Revolution.

Hassan Abdille

Hassan has over twenty-seven years of work experience in promoting social justice, reducing inequalities, and enhancing human rights and democracy in the Horn and Eastern Africa also very experienced in the INGO sector and particularly in the humanitarian sector. His current focus is to recognize the need to develop holistic, inclusive, community-rooted, and civil society-led solutions to effectively address development and humanitarian aid including operating space for civil society organizations' (CSOs) and strengthening accountability mechanisms when tackling poverty and injustices.

Crispine Odhiambo

An experienced commercial lawyer, advocate of the High Court of Kenya and Arbitrator. Was a board secretary in the past. Strong understanding of policy and programmatic agendas on sustainable development, women's empowerment, and inequality.